- 19 Clerks Report
  - Overhanging honeysuckle Morley Lane reported to DCC
  - Parishioner request on what LEPC are doing to commemorate WW1 response sent
  - Various issues reported to DCC. Overgrown vegetation obscuring the barrier, causing vehicles to cross the white line and clear the vegetation out of the gutter on Morley Lane from Breadsall. Two Overhanging trees and bushes on the old Alfreton Road coming to Jack O’Darley bridge from Coxbench. On the bend opposite the entry to barley close, this is causing the bus to cross the white line. Pavements – Alfreton Road / Barley Close – large trees overhanging on one side and residential trees growing over boundary causing severe restriction of the pavement. Alfreton Road from no, 271 to The Lodge – there are overhanging trees, brambles and other vegetation restricting the pavement width by at least half and also undergrowth. Alfreton Road to Toad Lane – overgrowth and also undergrowth of vegetation covering about half the pavement again
  - Parishioner concerns regarding roundabout. Response sent confirming this will be reviewed when the new system has been finished and is operational.

- Co-Op Site meeting 22.7.14 Feedback
- 20 Correspondence for Action
- Request for speed sign by parishioner at Kilburn end of Alfreton Road. Supporting information required by DCC
